WHAT A HOME INSPECTOR DOES

The job of a home inspector is to inspect buildings by walking through each area, sometimes crawling into small spaces such as attics, checking rooftops, and cellars, plumbing, electricity and appliances. Then they write a detailed report outlining the condition of the property, areas where repair or replacement may be needed, and specify any potential safety concerns.

Anyone can train to become a home inspector although typically prospective students are already involved in the real estate or construction fields. The physical ability to navigate through a building is required. In general this means that the prospective student should have the physical abilities to do so.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Admission is open to any qualified applicant. No qualified person may be excluded from enrollment based on sex, race, ethnic origin or religion.

APPLICANTS MUST MEET THE FOLLOWING REQUIREMENTS

1. Submit a signed Enrollment Agreement for classes to be taken through American Home Inspectors Training.
2. Pay appropriate fees. See Tuition and Payment Plans Policy.
3. Be at least 18 years of age.

Students with Special Needs

We train a number of students with special needs and/or disabilities. Students should contact their admission counselor for assistance with requests. People who work as a home inspector must have certain physical abilities to visually inspect buildings and structures, navigate throughout the building including on the roof, the ability to write inspection reports, and communicate with clients.

Language of Training

All Courses are offered only in English. American Home Inspectors Training does not offer English as a Second Language instruction.

Transfer of Granting of Credit

No life experience, credit through challenge exams, or previous training may be applied to any Course. There is no guarantee that home inspection courses can be transferred to other schools. The receiving institution solely controls transfer decisions.

Alternative Funding

American Home Inspectors Training does not participate in federal or state financial aid programs, nor does it offer institutional scholarship award plans or institutional grants.

Late Enrollment

There are no provisions for late enrollment.

OHIO REQUIREMENTS FOR HOME INSPECTORS

In some states licensing is required to inspect work as a home inspector. States are increasingly introducing legislation regarding the home inspection industry. Prospective home inspectors therefore need to contact the proper state agencies regarding requirements in their states. Ohio has recently adopted licensing, but requirements have not been finalized. For the most recent updates, visit: <https://www.com.ohio.gov/real/HomeInspectors.aspx>.

The school will promptly refund, in full, all tuition and fees paid no later than thirty days after the cancelation. This does not apply if the student has already started class.

Once a student starts class, the student's withdrawal date used to calculate refunds shall be the student's last date of attendance or participation in an academic activity. A student who starts class and withdraws before fifteen percent (15%) is completed will be obligated to pay twenty-five percent (25%) of the tuition and refundable fees. A student who starts class and withdraws after completing fifteen percent (15%) but before completing twenty-five percent (25%) will be obligated for fifty percent (50%) of the tuition and plus refundable fees. A student who starts class and withdraws after completing twenty-five percent (25%) but before completing forty percent (40%) of the class will be obligated for seventy-five percent (75%) of the tuition plus refundable fees. A student who completes class and withdraws after completing forty percent (40%) will not be entitled to a refund of tuition or fees. In the case of a documented student illness or accident, death in the family, or other circumstances beyond control of the student, the student shall be entitled to special consideration and the school may settle the account for an amount which is less than that called by the above policy.

If a student withdraws or is dismissed from the school, all efforts will be made to refund pre-paid amounts for books, fees and supplies except for when the student consumes or uses the books, fees and/or supplies. Consumption of books, fees and supplies is defined as:

- Items that were special ordered for a particular student and cannot be used by or sold to another student or

- a) Whether the postponement is for the convenience of the school or student, and:
- b) A deadline for the new start date, beyond which the start date will not be postponed.

If the course is not commenced, or the student fails to attend by the new start date set forth in the agreement, the student will be entitled to an appropriate refund of prepaid tuition and fees within thirty (30) days of the deadline of the new start date set forth in this agreement, determined in accordance with the school's refund policy.

Changes Made by the School

If the school cancels or changes a course of study or location in such a way that the student who has started is unable to complete training, arrangements will be made in a timely manner to accommodate the needs of each student enrolled in the course who is affected by the cancellation or change.
