REFUND AND CANCELLATION POLICY

Should an applicant/student cancel or is terminated for any reason, all refunds will be made according to the following policy and schedule:

1. A full refund of all monies will be paid if the application is not accepted by the school.
2. If a student withdraws from the institution on or before the first day of class – live or online – or fails to begin classes, the refund shall equal the sum of all refundable fees paid, less an administrative fee of $100.
3. A student terminating training is entitled to a refund based upon the chart below:

Termination Time	Refund
Prior to commencement of course	100% of tuition less a $100 administrative fee
Within first 10% of Course	75% of tuition less a $100 administrative fee
After 10% but within first 25% of Course	25% of tuition less a $100 administrative fee
After 25% of Course	No refund

A full refund will be provided if education service is discontinued by the school, with the exception that the school ceases operation.

The termination date for refund purposes is the last date of recorded attendance, or date the student notifies the school if sooner. If the school cancels a course then the student will receive a full refund of monies paid when materials are returned to school in re-saleable condition.

Refunds must be calculated from the last date of recorded attendance or notification to the school based upon contact hours attended. The policy of the granting of credit for previous training shall not impact on the refund policy. There is no granting of credit for previous training.

Refunds are made within 30 calendar days after the school has determined that the student has withdrawn and returned all materials.

Veterans Refund Policy

The non-refundable portion of registration fees will not exceed $10.00. All other charges to the student, including tuition, books and supplies issued by the school, registration fees in the excess of $10.00, and other fees will not exceed the pro-rata portion of total charges that the length of the completed portion of the course bears to the total length of the course.

Extenuating Circumstances

In the case of extenuating circumstances the director will consider a settlement that is reasonable and fair to the student and the school. Postponement of a starting date, whether at the request of the school or the student, requires a written agreement signed by the student and the school. The agreement must set forth:

- a. Whether the postponement is for the convenience of the school or student, and;
- b. A deadline for the new start date, beyond which the start date will not be postponed.

If the course is not commenced, or the student fails to attend by the new start date set forth in the agreement, the student will be entitled to an appropriate refund of prepaid tuition and fees within thirty (30) days of the deadline of the new start date set forth in the agreement.

If the school cancels or changes a course of study or location in such a way that the student who has started is unable to complete training, arrangements will be made in a timely manner to accommodate the needs of each student enrolled in the course who is affected by the cancellation or change. If the school is unable to make alternative arrangements, that are satisfactory to both parties, the school will refund all monies paid by the student within thirty (30) days.

Other Terms and Conditions

1. Employment assistance is provided but the school cannot guarantee job placement to graduates upon program/course completion or upon graduation.
2. The Academic Catalog lists a complete Student Grievance Procedure.
3. Contact hours earned at American Home Inspectors Training may not transfer to another educational institution. Contact hours earned at another educational institution may not be accepted by American Home Inspectors Training Institute. You should obtain confirmation that American Home Inspectors Training Institute will accept any contact hours you have earned at another educational institution before you execute an enrollment contract or agreement. You should also contact any educational institutions that you may want to transfer contact hours earned at American Home Inspectors Training to determine if such institutions will accept contact hours earned at American Home Inspector Training prior to executing an enrollment contract or agreement. The ability to transfer contact hours from American Home inspectors Training to another educational institution may be very limited. Your contact hours may not transfer and you may have to repeat courses previously taken at American Home Inspectors Training if you enroll in another educational institution. You should never assume that contact hours will transfer to or from any educational institution. It is highly recommended and you are advised to make certain that you know the transfer of contact hours policy for American Home Inspectors Training and of any other educational institutions you may in the future want to transfer the contact hours earned at American Home Inspectors Training before you execute an enrollment contract or agreement.
4. Students may take unresolved complaints to the Institutional Director. Responses will be made within 10 days and resolutions will be documented.
5. Should students believe the problem was not satisfactorily resolved, she/he may contact the school license board: Tennessee Higher Education Commission, Nashville, TN 37243-0830, 615-741-5293.
6. American Home Inspectors Training is authorized by the Tennessee Higher Education Commission. This authorization must be renewed each year and is based on an evaluation of minimum standards concerning quality of education, ethical business practices, and fiscal responsibility.
