REFUND POLICY

If a student is not accepted by the school, a refund of all monies paid shall be refunded to the student. This Enrollment Agreement or application to school may be cancelled within five calendar days after the date of signing if the school is notified of the cancellation in writing. The school will promptly refund, in full, all tuition and fees paid no later than thirty days after the cancellation. This does not apply if the student has already started class.

Once a student starts class, the student's withdrawal date used to calculate refunds shall be the student's last date of attendance or participation in an academic activity. A student who starts class and withdraws before fifteen percent (15%) is completed will be obligated to pay twenty-five percent (25%) of the tuition and refundable fees. A student who starts class and withdraws after completing fifteen percent (15%) but before completing twenty-five percent (25%) will be obligated for fifty percent (50%) of the tuition and plus refundable fees. A student who starts class and withdraws after completing twenty-five percent (25%) but before completing forty percent (40%) of the class will be obligated for seventy-five percent (75%) of the tuition plus refundable fees. A student who completes class and withdraws after completing forty percent (40%) will not be entitled to a refund of tuition or fees. If a student ceases attending class and does not notify the school of the withdrawal, the school will treat the student as withdrawn within sixty days after the student's last date of attendance.

In the case of a documented student illness or accident, death in the family, or other circumstances beyond control of the student, the student shall be entitled to special consideration and the school may settle the account for an amount which is less than that called by the above policy.

If a student withdraws or is dismissed from the school, all efforts will be made to refund pre-paid amounts for books, fees and supplies except for when the student consumes or uses the books, fees and/or supplies. Consumption of books, fees and supplies is defined as:

- Items that were special ordered for a particular student and cannot be used by or sold to another student or
- Items that were returned in a condition that prevents them from being used by or sold to new students
- Individually documented non-refundable fees for goods and services provided by a third party vendor

If a student stops attending classes and is placed on a leave of absence in lieu of a withdrawal from school, the school must document the nature of the leave of absence and the date the leave of absence ends. No leave of absence may exceed six months unless otherwise approved in writing by the board. A student who fails to return to school at the end of a leave of absence shall be formally withdrawn from the school and any refund of tuition and fees shall be issued in accordance with the last date of a student's attendance in class or participation in an academic activity.

EXTENUATING CIRCUMSTANCES

In the case of extenuating circumstances the school director will consider a settlement that is reasonable and fair to the student and the school.

Postponement of a starting date, whether at the request of the school or the student, requires a written agreement signed by the student and the school. The agreement must set forth:

- a) Whether the postponement is for the convenience of the school or student, and;
- b) A deadline for the new start date, beyond which the start date will not be postponed.

If the course is not commenced, or the student fails to attend by the new start date set forth in the agreement, the student will be entitled to an appropriate refund of prepaid tuition and fees within thirty (30) days of the deadline of the new start date set forth in this agreement, determined in accordance with the school's refund policy.

CHANGES MADE BY THE SCHOOL

If the school cancels or changes a course of study or location in such a way that the student who has started is unable to complete training, arrangements will be made in a timely manner to accommodate the needs of each student enrolled in the course who is affected by the cancellation or change. If the school is unable to make alternative arrangements that are satisfactory to both parties, the school will refund all monies paid by the student of the course.
